Albany Christian School News Update

On Sunday, May 25, 2008, Willamette Community Church announced that Albany Christian School hired a new Principal for the 2008-09 school year: Mr. Jason Platt.

Jason brings years of teaching and administration experience as well as a heart for children and families. Most recently he has served as Athletic Director and teacher at South Albany High School. Jason received his B.S. and M.Ed. from Western Oregon University and earned a Masters in Counseling from Northwest Christian College. Jason will begin his new position as Principal in July.

Jason is a wonderful family man who enjoys spending time with his wife of 15 years, Pamela and their three beautiful and charming children: Emma – age 10, McKenna – age 6, and Owen – age 1.
